ADVERTISEMENT.

THE first General Directory for the City of Washington, is herewith presented to the public, in the hope that it will be found, what the compiler has spared no pains in endeavouring to make it, worthy of their patronage.

In order to state the places of residence as explicitly, and, at the same time, as concisely, as possible, a system of contraction was necessary to be adopted, which, it is presumed, there will be no difficulty in understanding. The following examples will serve as an explanation to those who require it: F street north, is expressed by Fn, and Twelfth street west, by 12w, and the other streets on the same plan—dw. is for dwelling—btw. between. The other contractions are sufficiently intelligible without explanations.

To those unacquainted with the plan of the city, it may be of service to state, that all the streets running east and west, are designated by letters of the alphabet, and by the word north or south, according as they are situated north or south of the capitol, which is the dividing point; as, A street north. and A street south.

which are the first streets north and south of the capitol.

The streets running north and south, are designated numerically, and by the word east or west, according to their positions with respect to the capitol; as, First street east, and First street west.

WASHINGTON, December, 1822.

CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON.

The Mayor, Board of Aldermen, and Board of Common Council, constitute the Corporation of the City of Washington; the executive authority being vested in the Mayor, and the legislative in the two Boards. They are, in their corporate capacity, authorized and empowered, by the act of Congress of 15th May, 1820, to do all acts, as natural persons, and are endowed with various specific powers, which will be found enumerated in the seventh and eighth sections of the act of incorporation. The organization of the City government is on the plan of that of the United States: the Federal Constitution being evidently the model by which the act of incorporation was framed.

The Mayor

Is elected on the first Monday in June, biennially, by the qualified voters of the city.* He must be a free white citizen, thirty years old, must have resided in the city for two years immediately preceding his election, and be the owner of a freehold estate in the city. He is authorized to appoint (with the consent of the Board of Aldermen) to all offices under the corporation, except commissioners of election, who are appointed by the two boards in joint meeting. He is, by virtue of his office, a justice of the peace for the county of Washington. The compensation of the Mayor, was fixed by the two boards, by an act of 20th June, 1820, at 1000 dollars. payable quarterly, in addition to the fees allowed by law.

* Respecting the necessary qualifications of Voters for Mayor and Members of the two Boards, and for the manner in which the elections must be conducted, see the Abstract of the Act of Incorporation, a few pages further on.

His salary cannot be changed during his continuance in office. He may convene the two boards when in his opinion the public good requires it—and lay before them, from time to time, in writing, such alterations in the laws of the corporation as he may deem necessary and proper. No act of the two boards is obligatory, until approved by the Mayor, except in particular cases, when the Mayor returns an act, with his reasons in writing, for not approving it, the boards may, on a reconsideration, pass it, if two thirds agree.

Boards of Aldermen and Common Council.

The Board of Aldermen consists of twelve, and the Board of Common Council of eighteen members; one half of the former, and the whole of the latter, are elected annually on the first Monday in June, by the qualified voters of the city. The six wards into which the city is divided are respectively represented by two Aldermen, whose term of service is two years, and by three Councilmen, whose term of service is one year. Members of the Boards must be free white citizens, 25 years old, have been residents of the city for one year next preceding their election, residents of the ward for which they are elected, and owners of freehold estates in the city. There are five sessions in a year, viz. 2d Monday in June, 4th Monday in June, 3d Monday in September, 2d Monday in March, and 2d Monday in May. The first session must commence at 10 o'clock in the morning, and the others at 3 o'clock, P. M. and continue from day to day until all business is finished. Adjournments for more than one day must be by joint resolution. A majority of each board is necessary to do business, but a less number may adjourn from day to day. Each branch appoints a President from its own body, by ballot, and a majority of the whole number of votes is necessary to make a choice. The President is always at liberty to deliver his sentiments in debate upon questions before the board, in preference to any other member. He appoints all committees, unless otherwise directed, and is entitled to vote upon all questions. Members of either board are prohibited from holding any office under the corporation to which a compensation is attached, except that of guardian of the poor, under the penalty of forfeiting five dollars for every day he so holds it. Any member may be expelled from the council for disorderly behaviour or malconduct in office, with the concurrence of three-fourths of the whole, but not a second time for the same offence. They regulate the compensation of the mayor, their own, and that of all officers under the corporation. The compensation of the members was fixed by a law passed on the 31st October, 1820, at one dollar for every day's attendance; and the penalty for non-attendance of any member by four o'clock, P. M. is two dollars, except such member shall be at least five miles from the city, or confined by sickness. The boards are required by the act of incorporation to keep a journal of their proceedings, and to enter the yeas and nays thereon at the request of any member. All free white persons are permitted to attend their deliberations, but in case of disorderly conduct, the president may either order the persons out causing the disturbance, or have the room cleared. No act of the boards can take effect until sent to the mayor for his approbation. If he does not approve of it, he must return it within five days, with his reasons therefor, in writing, and if two thirds of both boards, on a reconsideration, agree to pass the same. it shall be obligatory, unless they shall, by adjournment, prevent its return. Members of the board of aldermen are, like the mayor, ex-officio, justices of the peace for the county of Washington, unless holding commissions in the army or navy of the United States.

Each board has a Secretary, whose compensation is one hundred and fifty dollars, per annum, each.

City Register.

This officer is appointed by the Mayor, with the consent of the Board of Aldermen, on or about the fourth Monday of June, annually. He must be a discreet and prudent citizen, a resident of the city, and must give bond with sureties, to the corporation, for the faithful performance of his duty, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars. His compensation was formerly eight hundred dollars, with fees; but by an act of July, 1820, his salary was fixed at sixteen hundred dollars, payable quarterly, in lieu of all perquisites heretofore received. Among the various duties enjoined upon the City Register, are the following: He is to attend in his office, for the transaction of public business, from nine to three o'clock, every day, excepting the fourth of July, Sundays, and Christmas day. It is his duty to prepare and report estimates of the public expenses; to superintend the collection of taxes and debts; to have charge of the papers of the corporation, and the journals of the two boards; to keep a record of all appointments made by the Mayor; to record all acts passed by the corporation, and to furnish copies thereof when required; to have charge of the city seal, and affix it, with his signature, when required by the Mayor or corporation; to keep an account of all assessable property in the city, and furnish the collectors annually with the names of persons from whom taxes are due, and the amount. He is required to exhibit a statement of the accounts of the corporation to a committee appointed by the two boards to receive the same, by the third Monday in April, annually. It is his duty to procure the laws of every session to be printed, and to furnish each member of the boards with a copy of the laws of the preceding session, on or before the meeting of each stated session. The register is also required, by a resolution of October, 1821, to transmit to the two boards, on the first Monday of their March and October sessions, annually, a statement, showing the balance due the corporation for taxes; the sums due by the United States; the balances in bank to the credit of the respective wards, and the net amount of funds belonging to each ward; the debts due by each ward, and those due from and to the general fund. All warrants for drawing moneys for the use of the corporation, are countersigned by the register. The act of incorporation provides that he shall furnish the commissioners of election, previous to opening the polls, with a list of persons having a right to vote. In case of the absence of the Mayor, it is the duty of the register to grant licenses, if applied for agreeably to law. The office of treasurer of the city, was abolished on the 29th July, 1819, and the accounts, papers, and duties of it transferred to the register.

A Clerk is authorized to be employed in the office of the Mayor and Register, whose annual compensation is four hundred dollars, payable quarterly.

Board of Guardians of the Poor.

This Board consists of six members, one from each ward, who are appointed by the Mayor, on or about the second Monday in May, annually. They must be reputable inhabitants, and house keepers, of the city. It is the duty of the Guardians to meet once a week, at least, at the Washington Asylum, and to provide for the relief, maintenance, and clothing of the poor, infirm, and diseased persons of the city, and a majority is sufficient to do business. They are authorized to draw on the Mayor for such sums as are necessary to carry into effect the objects for which they were established. They prepare rules and regulations for the government of the inmates of the Washington Asylum, over which institution they have the control; and they are, in certain cases, empowered to grant relief to the out-door poor of the city. They may appoint a Physician to attend the Asylum, and allow him a reasonable compensation. They are prohibited from being concerned in any contracts for supplies for the Asylum, under the penalty of twenty dollars, and being dismissed. The compensation of each Guardian is two dollars per day, for each day he attends a general meeting of the board, provided the pay to all the Guardians does not exceed six hundred dollars per annum. The Guardians are authorized to appoint their own Secretary, who receives a compensation of one hundred dollars.

The Intendant of the Asylum, is appointed by the Mayor in like manner and time with the board of guardians. He must be a reputable and competent person, and give bond to the corporation in the sum of two thousand dollars. He superintends the management of the Asylum, and enforces the regulations of the guardians, for its government. His compensation is four hundred dollars per annum, paid quarterly.

The Matron of the Asylum is also appointed in like manner and time with the guardians. She performs such duties as the guardians direct, and her compensation is one hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

The families of the Intendant and Matron are provided with all necessary food, fire-wood, and candles, at the expense of the corporation, provided there is not a greater number in their respective families than one additional member each.

Board of Health.

The Board of Health was established by an act of the corporation, dated 30th March, 1822. It is composed of thirteen members, one of whom must be the attending physician of the Washington Asylum. The others are appointed annually by the Mayor, two from each ward, one of whom must, and the other must not, be a physician. It is the duty of the board of health to declare by resolution what they consider as nuisances, or sources of disease, which resolution is to be published; and they are required to keep a register of the deaths in the city, designating the different diseases, sexes, ages, and colours, of the decedents, and whether residents or strangers, which register must be published monthly in one or more of the city newspapers. It is the duty of the members, severally, to give notice to the commissioners of the ward in which they reside, of any nuisances which may come under their observation, who must have the same forthwith removed.

City Commissioners.

The City Commissioners are appointed annually, on the 4th Monday of June, by the Mayor. They must be discreet, respectable, and temperate house-keepers, and residents of the district or ward for which they are appointed, and are required to give bond, each in the sum of one thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of their duties. The annual compensation of the commissioner for the first ward is two hundred dollars; that of the commissioner for the second and third wards is four hundred dollars; commissioner for the fourth ward, two hundred dollars; and that of the commissioner for the fifth and sixth wards is four hundred dollars. The duties formerly performed by assessors were transferred to the commissioners, by an act of July, 1820, for which they receive a compensation not exceeding twenty dollars each, per annum. It is their duty to superintend the execution of the laws of the corporation, generally; and particularly the expenditures of moneys appropriated to open or repair streets, bridges, &c. and they are authorized to receive and decide upon proposals from persons offering to execute the same.

Board of Appeal.

This board is instituted for the purpose of hearing and deciding upon all appeals which may be made by persons who suppose their property has been too highly assessed. They are authorized to alter any assessment previously made, and to equalize the valuation of all assessable property in the city, whether the same is appealed from or not. Notice however must be given to persons, the amount of whose assessment has been changed by them. They meet at the council chamber on the fourth Monday in April, annually, and continue to meet for ten successive days, Sundays excepted. Three days previous notice must be given in the newspapers, of their meeting, and final adjournment. The compensation of each member, is two dollars per day.

Commissioners for Building the City Hall.

These consist of the Mayor for the time being, and of four others, two of whom are appointed by the Board of Aldermen, and two by the Common Council. They were authorized to provide for the erection of the City Hall, according to the plan of Mr. Hadfield; to determine the description of the materials used for that purpose; and to appoint a suitable person to superintend the performance of the work.

Commissioners for Draining Low Grounds, &c.

The Mayor, and four citizens, two of whom are appointed by each Board, compose a board of commissioners, instituted to aid the Corporation in carrying into effect the act of Congress authorizing them to drain the low grounds on and near the public reservations, and to improve and ornament certain parts of them. The Commissioners were authorized to contract with the Washington Canal Company to change the location of such parts of the canal as they deemed proper; and to divide the reservations into lots, and fix and prescribe the time and conditions of sale of the same, in the name of the Corporation. They are required to keep regular minutes of their proceedings, which must be laid before the Council, at the commencement of every session, together with a full statement of their receipts and expenditures.

Collectors of Taxes.

These are appointed annually, by the Mayor, about the first of January. There is one for the first and second, one for the third and fourth, and one for the fifth and sixth wards. They are required to give bond, in a sum double the amount of taxes estimated to be collected in the wards for which they are appointed. It is their duty to collect all taxes which may be due within their respective wards, and the accounts of which are placed in their hands by the Register; and it is required of them to give notice in writing to every person assessed, of the amount of taxes due by them, respectively, on or before the first day of February, annually, which notice must state where the property is situated, the assessment value thereof, the value of the improvements and personal property, if any, and the amount of taxes due. If the owner of the property assessed resides without the District of Columbia, or if his place of residence is unknown to the collector, such notice must be given in a newspaper. They are authorized and required, under certain regulations, to sell property upon which two or more years taxes are due, by giving public notice thereof, agreeably to law. The compensation of collectors is five per cent. on all moneys collected by them.

Police Constables.

These are appointed about the fourth Monday of June, annually, and are six in number, one from each ward. They must give bond in such sum as the Mayor may think proper, not exceeding five hundred dollars. It is their duty to give information to the Commissioners, of any infraction of the laws of the corporation; and of all nuisances and obstructions in the streets or other places of the city, in order that they may be removed, and the authors thereof prosecuted. On the first Thursday of every month, they are required to make a report to the Mayor of all their proceedings for the month previous. Their compensation is one hundred dollars per annum, payable yearly, in addition to the fees allowed by law.

Clerks of the Markets.

The regulations of the corporation respecting market houses, require a clerk to be appointed annually, for each one, whose duty it is to attend the same during market hours, inspect all articles offered for sale, decide all differences between buyers and sellers, seize all articles offered for sale for a certain weight, which he may find deficient, and see that the regulations respecting markets are duly observed; and cause the market house to be swept every day immediately after the market held therein shall be over. He receives a compensation of seventy-five cents for every market day he attends.

Managers of the City Lotteries.

These were appointed by the Mayor, in conformity to acts of the Corporation, for the purpose of agreeing on a scheme of a lottery, and managing the same, in order to raise a fund for building and establishing two public schools, a penitentiary, and city hall. Before proceeding to dispose of the tickets, the managers are required to give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of their duty. They are authorized to fill up vacancies in their own body, and to elect a president, whose duty it is to sign all contracts and lottery tickets. They receive a compensation of three dollars, each, for every day they are employed, provided the whole expense of drawing any one scheme shall not exceed an average of one thousand dollars.

Commissioners of the Burial Grounds.

There are three commissioners for the eastern, and three for the western burial ground. They were appointed for the purpose of dividing the burial grounds into suitable sites for graves, and to dispose of the same, in the manner prescribed by the laws of the Corporation. They are authorized to apply the money arising from the sale of sites for graves, to the improvement and repairs of the fences and burial grounds, and to the purchase of a lot, and the erection of a house thereon, in the neighborhood of each, for the accommodation of the Sextons. One Sexton is appointed, by the Mayor, for each burial ground, who, or their deputies, are the only persons allowed to dig graves in the burial grounds to which they are respectively attached, and they receive such compensation, for digging and filling up, as the commissioners may establish. They are required to keep an exact account of all interments made by them, and make a return thereof to the Register of the city every three months.

Surveyor.

The Surveyor is appointed annually about the fourth Monday of June, by the Mayor. It is his duty to lay down, point out, and mark, the line of graduation of any street or avenue in the city; and before the opening of any street or avenue, to ascertain and certify to the commissioner of the ward in which the same may be, the number of perches, yards, or feet, of work required to be done on said street or avenue; and to do generally all such services as Surveyor, which may be necessary to carry into effect the acts of the Corporation, and which may be required of him by the Mayor or a ward Commissioner. His compensation is two hundred dollars per annum.

Inspector of Tobacco.

The Inspector of Tobacco is appointed by the Mayor, about the fourth Monday of June, annually. He is required to give bond in the sum of three thousand dollars, and make oath that he will faithfully perform the duties required of him, by the laws respecting the inspection of tobacco. It is his duty to inspect every hogshead of tobacco, when required so to do, by uncasing and breaking each hogshead in three different places, and shall determine its quality and weight, and mark the same on the hogshead, together with the initials of the owner's name. He exercises the general superintendence over all persons employed to work in the warehouse, and must not suffer any person to be employed therein whom he does not know to be of a good moral character. He fixes the compensations of such persons, to be paid by the persons for whom they are employed. He is required to make a report to the Register of the City, on the first Monday in January annually, of the number of hogsheads of tobacco inspected by him, and the sums received for warehouse rent, and inspection. His compensation is one hundred dollars per annum, for taking care of the warehouse, and he receives one dollar for every hogshead of tobacco inspected by him.

Sealer of Weights and Measures.

This officer is appointed by the mayor, about the fourth of June, annually. He enters into bond, with satisfactory security, in the sum of five hundred dollars, for the faithful discharge of his duties. He is required to keep an office near the centre of the city, and has the keeping of the standard weights and measures provided by the corporation, by which it is his duty to rectify, and brand with the letter W. all scale beams, weights, and measures, within three days after the same may be brought to his office for that purpose, or incur a penalty of five dollars. He must also, under a penalty of twenty dollars, once in every six months enter each place where goods are sold, in the city, except establishments of the United States, and examine and adjust such scales, weights, and measures, as may be found without the official stamp; and he is required twice in every year to examine, and cause to be adjusted, every hay-scale in the city. His fees are ten cents for rectifying each scale, weight, or measure, if brought to his office, and twenty cents, if rectified in any other place; for adjusting hay-scales, he receives two dollars each. And in addition to his fees, he is allowed an annual salary of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid half-yearly by the corporation.

Inspectors of Flour,

Are annually appointed by the Mayor about the fourth Monday in June. They must be of good repute and skill, and are required to make oath that they will faithfully inspect, according to the provisions of the acts of the corporation, all flour brought to the city, when they are called upon for that purpose. It is the duty of the Inspector to examine every such barrel of flour, by piercing it with an instrument, and if he shall judge the same to be merchantable, to brand the words Washington City on the quarter thereof; and also mark them with the quality which he may determine the flour to be of, whether superfine, fine, or middlings. And every barrel of flour which he may condemn as unmerchantable, shall be branded on the quarter with a broad arrow, or secured for further examination. Inspectors are prohibited from purchasing flour, except for family use, under the penalty of forfeiting ten dollars, for every barrel purchased. They are required to keep an exact account of all the flour by them inspected, and make a return thereof to the Mayor once in every three months. Their compensation is two cents for each barrel of flour they inspect, to be paid by the owner thereof.

Gaugers.

Of these there are two, appointed annually by the Mayor. It is their duty to gauge all liquors brought to the city by land or water, for sale; and their compensation is six cents and a quarter for gauging each barrel, hogshead, pipe, or tierce, to be paid by the owners thereof.

Inspectors and Measurers of Lumber.

It is the duty of these to inspect and measure all lumber offered for sale within the jurisdiction of the corporation of Washington; to mark its contents, decide its quality, and to condemn all which is not merchantable, by marking a cross thereon. Inspectors and measurers are prohibited from purchasing any lumber, except for their own use, on pain of forfeiting their office. Their compensation is thirty cents per thousand feet, for measuring boards, planks, or scantling; and for inspecting shingles, and laths, twenty cents per thousand for the former, and ten for the latter—one half to be paid by the purchaser, and the other by the seller.

Wood Corders and Coal Measurers

Are appointed annually, by the Mayor, about the fourth Monday of June. It is their duty to measure all wood and coal brought to the city for sale, and to see that it is corded and measured agreeably to law. Wood Corders are entitled to six cents for every cord of wood examined and measured by them, to be paid by the sellers. Coal Measurers are entitled to half a cent for each bushel measured, to be paid in equal parts by the purchaser and seller; and they are required to render an account to the Register, within one month after the expiration of their appointment, of all the coal measured by them. Dealers in wood or coal are not eligible to either of these offices.

Hay Weighers.

It is the business of these to weigh all hay, straw, and fodder, brought for sale, and to give a certificate describing the gross weight of the hay, wagon, and pieces used in securing it, also distinguishing the weight of the wagon and pieces, and the net weight of the hay, and brand with the letters W. C. all carriages used in bringing hay, for sale, and the pieces used in securing it, and to number them, and insert the number in the certificate. They are entitled to fifty cents for each wagon load weighed, and to twenty-five cents for each cart load.

Chimney Sweeps.

A law of the Corporation authorizes the appointment by the Mayor, annually, of three persons, to be denominated Superintendents of Chimney Sweepers, who are required to give bond to the amount of five hundred dollars, each, conditioned for the faithful execution of the duties prescribed by law. It is their duty, once in every month, after giving two days' notice, to visit every house within the district for which they are respectively appointed, and cause to be swept each chimney in which fire is used; and also to scrape the chimneys of newly built houses, and new chimneys erected to old houses. In case any superintendent neglects to perform this duty, he is liable to a fine of five dollars. They are required to keep a book and enter therein the names of the several owners or occupiers of houses whose chimneys have been swept, the names of such as have refused to permit him to sweep, and the number of flues which he has swept in each house, a copy of which is to be deposited with the Register on the first Monday in each month. Their compensation is ten cents per story, for each flue swept.

Scavengers

Are appointed about the first Monday in August, annually, one or more from each ward, at the discretion of the Mayor. It is their business under the direction of the ward commissioners, to remove nuisances and all offensive substances. It is their duty, also, to clean out all privies, requiring it, once in two months from April to October, and once in three months from October to April, and within twenty-four hours after they are required so to do by the occupier of the premises, on failure of which they are liable to a fine of from one to ten dollars.

They are entitled to the following fees: For cleaning each box not exceeding three feet long, eighteen inches wide, and eighteen inches deep, fifty cents, and for each additional foot or part of a foot, in length, twenty-five cents; and for all boxes of greater dimensions, in the same proportion; for every bucket or vessel, not exceeding eighteen inches in diameter, thirty-seven and a half cents; and for those exceeding eighteen inches in diameter, they may charge at the rate fixed for boxes. In addition to their fees, they are entitled to receive a compensation, not exceeding fifty dollars, each, per annum, at the discretion of the commissioner.

BOUNDARIES OF THE WARDS.

The Corporation are specially authorized, by the sixteenth section of the act of incorporation, to divide the city into as many wards, from time to time, as in their opinion may be most conducive to its interests; but each ward must comprise an equal number of inhabitants, as near as may be. An act of the corporation was passed May 24, 1820, dividing the city into six wards, and defining their limits, as follow:

First Ward.—All that part of the city to the westward of Fifteenth street west.

Second Ward.—That part of the city between Fifteenth and Tenth streets west.

Third Ward.—That part between Tenth and First streets west, and north of E street south.

Fourth Ward.—That part between First street west and Eighth street east, and north of E street south.

Fifth Ward.—That part between Tenth street west and Fourth street east, and south of E street south.

Sixth Ward.—The residue of the city.

RATES OF FARE FOR THE CONVEYANCE OF PERSONS IN HACKNEY CARRIAGES.

Hackmen are entitled to charge, for conveying each person from and to the following places,

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS:

From the Capitol Square to the	From the President's Square to
Navy Yard.	Greenleaf's Point.
South end of N. Jersey avenue.	Hamburg Wharf.
South end of S. Capitol street.	Western limits of the City.
Greenleaf's Point.	From Grnlf's Point to the N. Yard.
President's Square.	N. Yrd to Eastern Br. bridge.

From the Capitol Square to the Eastern Branch bridge, thirty-one cents.

For any distance, between the above mentioned places, not exceeding half the entire distance, they are entitled to twelve and a half cents; but any distance more than half is reckoned as the whole distance. No charge, however, can be made exceeding twelve and a half cents per mile, for any distance above two miles.

In case of the detention of a hackney carriage over five minutes, the driver thereof shall be allowed for the whole hack, a sum not exceeding twelve and one half cents for every fifteen minutes. And for the conveyance of persons from any one place to another in the City of Washington, not specified above, at the rate of twelve and one half cents a mile. And for all conveyances or detentions, later than eight o'clock, P. M. the owners or drivers of hackney carriages may demand and receive at the rate of fifty per cent. on the foregoing charges, in addition thereto; and in all the foregoing cases, the same charges shall be allowed for a part of a mile as for a whole mile.

If any owner or driver of a hackney carriage, shall refuse to carry a passenger or passengers at the foregoing rates, or demand or receive any greater sum for the conveyance of persons, than the established rates, or shall take up any passengers contrary to these regulations, he or they, on conviction before any justice of the peace for the county of Washington, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars for each and every offence, one half of which penalty shall go to the person informing, and the other half to the use of the corporation. Any owner or driver of a hackney carriage, however, is not prohibited from receiving any voluntary compensation for the conveyance of persons, over and above the rates hereby established; but it shall, nevertheless, be the duty of the owner or driver aforesaid, to inform the persons offering such extra compensation, of the legal rates, otherwise the said owner or driver will be deemed guilty of having demanded extra compensation.

No driver of a hackney carriage can, when carrying any number of passengers more than two, or when the passengers in the hack agree to pay for three seats therein, be allowed to take up any other passenger on the way, without the permission of the persons then in the hack.

Whenever a hackney carriage shall be unemployed and not in motion, and within the streets or avenues of the city, it shall be placed lengthwise the street or avenue in which the same may be, and stand, if on an avenue, at least twenty-four feet, and on any street, fifteen feet, from the curb stone, and in such manner as not to be in the line of other cross streets or avenues, or to prevent or obstruct the passing of wagons or other carriages, or persons on foot, from crossing in the line and direction of the footways on the side of any other street or avenue; and the driver of every such hackney carriage, while occupying any stand, must sit on his seat in such carriage, or stand near thereto, with the reins in his hands, and must not absent himself therefrom without leaving the reins in the hands of some person capable of taking charge of the same; and, also, must not crack, slash, or otherwise use his whip, so as to annoy persons passing, or frighten or scare horses; and for each and every violation of any of the aforesaid regulations, the owner or proprietor of the carriage shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than two nor more than five dollars.

If the driver of any hackney carriage, while the said hackney carriage shall be unemployed, and not in motion, shall disturb or annoy any person or persons by boisterous or riotous conduct, or by creating any unnecessary or unusual noise or tumult, the owner or owners of the hackney carriage whose driver shall so offend, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than two nor more than five dollars.

Each and every carriage, when in motion, shall be kept to the side of the street or avenue which shall be on the right side of the driver.

It is the duty of the owner or owners of every hackney carriage, licensed, or to be licensed, to run within the City of Washington, before the same shall be run as such, to cause to be put or pasted up, permanently, on some convenient and conspicuous place, within the inner part of the carriage, an abstract of the regulations respecting hackney carriages. And if any hackney carriage is found running as such, within the limits of this corporation, without the said abstract being pasted or placed as aforesaid, the owner or owners thereof shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars.

Whenever any owner or driver of a hackney carriage shall demand or receive any greater sum, for the conveyance of persons who shall not have resided twelve months within the city of Washington, than is established by the rates of fare aforesaid, or shall refuse to carry such person or persons at the said rates, he shall forfeit and pay ten dollars.

CHARTER OF WASHINGTON.

Abstract of the Act of Incorporation, or Charter, of the City, Passed by Congress, 15th May, 1820.

Sec. 1. In this section, all former acts of incorporation are declared to be repealed. It provides, however, that the Members of the Corporation in office at the time of the passage of this act are to continue as such until the expiration of the terms for which they were respectively appointed: and all their acts done in pursuance of former acts of incorporation, and not inconsistent with this one, are to remain valid.

Sec. 2. enacts that the inhabitants of Washington shall continue to be a body politic and corporate, by the name of the "Mayor, Board of Aldermen, and Board of Common Council, of the City of Washington;" and, by their corporate name, are authorized to do all acts as natural persons; and that they may have a city seal, which they may alter at pleasure.

Sec. 3. declares that the Mayor shall be elected biennially, commencing on the first Monday in June, 1820, at the same time and place, in the same manner, and by the persons qualified to vote for the Boards of Aldermen and Common Council. Commissioners of Election are to make out duplicate certificates of the result of the election, and return one to each Board on the Monday following the election; and the person having the greatest number of votes shall be the Mayor; but in case two or more, highest in vote, shall have an equal number, then the Boards are to determine, by ballot in joint meeting, the choice between them. The Mayor must, on the Monday ensuing his election, take an oath in presence of the two Boards, to be administered by a justice of the peace, "lawfully to execute the duties of his office, to the best of his skill and judgment, without favor or partiality." By virtue of his office, he is to be a justice of the peace for the county of Washington. He is empowered, with the consent of the Board of Aldermen, to appoint all officers under the corporation, (except commissioners of election,) and may remove them at pleasure. He may appoint persons to fill vacancies which occur during the recess of said Board, to hold their offices until the end of the then ensuing session. He may convene the two Boards when in his opinion the public good may require it; he shall lay before them in writing such alterations in the laws of the corporation as he may deem proper; and he shall receive for his services, annually, a compensation, which shall not be altered during his continuance in office. Any person is eligible to the office of Mayor, who is a free white male citizen, thirty years of age, has been a resident of the city for two years preceding the election, and who is the bona fide owner of a freehold estate in the city. In case of the refusal of the Mayor elect to accept of the office, or of his death, resignation, inability, or removal, the said Boards shall elect another, to serve for the remainder of the term, or during such inability.

Sec. 4. enacts that the Board of Aldermen shall consist of two members to be residents in and chosen from each ward, by the qualified voters therein, to be elected for two years from the Monday next ensuing their election. The Board of Common Council shall consist of three members from each ward, to be chosen in like manner, for one year. Each Board shall meet at the council chamber, at ten o'clock, on the second Monday in June in every year, and at such other times as they may by law direct. A majority of each Board is necessary to form a quorum; but a less number may adjourn from day to day. They may compel the attendance of absent members ; and regulate their own compensation. Each Board to choose its own President, who is entitled to a vote. They shall fix their rules of proceeding, choose their own officers, regulate their compensations, and remove them at pleasure. They may, three-fourths concurring, expel any member for disorderly behaviour or malconduct in office, but not a second time for the same offence. Each Board shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and the yeas and nays shall be entered thereon at the request of any member. Their deliberations shall be public. All their ordinances or acts shall be sent to the Mayor, and, if approved by him, shall be obligatory. But if the Mayor does not approve of any ordinance or act, he shall return it within five days, with the reasons, in writing, of his disapproval; but if, on a reconsideration, two-thirds of both Boards agree to pass the same, it shall be valid. If the Boards, by their adjournment, prevent its return, it shall not be obligatory.

Sec. 5. designates the qualifications of members of the two Boards, and of voters. No person is eligible to a seat in either Board, unless he is upwards of twenty-five, a free white male citizen, has resided in the city for one year next preceding the election, is a resident of the ward for which he is elected, the bona fide owner of a freehold estate in the city, and shall have been assessed on the books of the Corporation for the year ending on the 31st of December next preceding the election. Voters must be in like manner qualified, except that it is not requisite for them to own a freehold estate, nor to be more than twenty-one ; voters must, however, in addition to the above qualifications, have paid all taxes legally assessed and due on personal property, when legally required to pay the same, before they can exercise the right of suffrage. It is enjoined upon the City Register, or such person as the corporation may direct, to furnish the commissioners of election in each ward, previous to every election, with a list of the persons having a right to vote.

Sec. 6. requires an election for members of the two boards to be held on the first Monday in June, annually. Three commissioners are to be appointed for each ward, by the boards in joint meeting, ten days at least before the election. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to give at least five days' notice of the places where the election is to be held. They are to take an oath "truly and faithfully to receive and return the votes of such persons as are by law entitled to vote for members of the two boards in their respective wards; and not knowingly to receive or return the vote of any person who is not legally entitled to the same." The polls shall be opened at ten in the morning, and close at seven in the evening. As soon as the polls are closed, the commissioners shall make out a correct return of the persons having the greatest number of legal votes for members of the two boards, respectively, together with the number of votes for each person voted for. The persons having the greatest number of votes, shall be duly elected; and in all cases of an equality, the commissioners shall decide the choice by lot. The said returns shall be made to the Mayor on the day preceding the election, who shall cause them to be published. A duplicate return, together with a list of the persons who voted, shall also be made at the same time, to the City Register, who shall record the same; and shall, within two days thereafter, notify the several persons returned of their election. Each board shall judge of the legality of the elections of its own members, and shall supply vacancies in its own body, by causing elections to fill the same, and appointing commissioners who are to give the usual notice of the time and place of holding such elections. The members of either Board shall take an oath or affirmation, "faithfully to execute the duties of his office to the best of his knowledge and ability," to be administered by the Mayor, or a justice of the peace.

Sec. 7. defines the powers of the Corporation. They are authorized to tax all real and personal property, provided said tax does not exceed three-fourths per cent. on the assessment, except for special purposes; wearing apparel, or the necessary tools and implements used in carrying on the trade or occupation of any person, not to be taxed, nor subject to seizure for taxes; after providing for all objects of a general nature, the balance of taxes to be expended in the ward where raised. The corporation shall have power to establish a board of health, who shall have authority to enforce its regulations, and take measures to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases; prevent and remove nuisances; etablish night watches; erect lamps; preserve the navigation of the rivers; erect and regulate public wharves; deepen creeks, docks, and basins; regulate the manner of erecting private wharves, and their rates of wharfage; the stationing of vessels; provide for licensing, taxing, and regulating auctions, retailers, ordinaries and taverns, carriages, wagons, carts and drays, pawn brokers, venders of lottery tickets, money changers, and hawkers and pedlers; theatrical or public shows; tippling houses, lotteries, and all kinds of gaming; regulate and establish markets; erect bridges; open and keep in repair streets and drains, agreeably to the plan of the city; supply water; provide for the safe keeping of the standard weights and measures, as fixed by Congress, and regulate those used in the city; regulate the sweeping of chimneys, and the fees therefor; provide for the prevention and extinguishment of fires; regulate the size of bricks; provide for the inspection of lumber, and other building materials; and, with the approbation of the President of the United States, to regulate the manner of erecting, and the materials to be used in the erection of, houses; regulate the inspection of country produce, and salted provisions; the gauging of casks and liquors; the storage of gunpowder and all naval and military stores, not the property of the United States; to impose and appropriate fines, &c. for the breach of their laws; and to provide for the appointment of the officers necessary to execute the laws of the Corporation.

Sec. 8. further empowers the Corporation to tax particular wards, or parts, for their local improvement; and, upon application of the owners of more than one half of the property upon any portion of a street, to cause the curb stones to be set and the foot way to be paved, on such portion, and to tax such property to the amount of the expense thereof, provided said tax shall not exceed three dollars per front foot. Upon like application, they may cause the carriage way to be paved, or lamps erected, the expense to be defrayed by the imposition of a tax on the lot fronting the portion so improved; and if said tax is not paid within thirty days after it becomes due, an interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, may be demanded. The corporation is authorized to establish, superintend, and endow, public schools; all necessary public institutions and buildings, and impose taxes to defray the expense thereof; regulate party walls and fences, and determine by whom they shall be kept in repair; cause new alleys to be opened, and extend those already laid out, in any square, upon application of the owners of more than half of the property in such square; but it is provided, that if any individual suffers damage, he shall be indemnified therefor by the corporation, after the amount shall have been ascertained by a jury summoned by the marshal; the amount of damages, and the expenses accruing, to be levied upon the property benefitted. They are empowered to improve, for public purposes, with the consent of the President, any public ground, not interfering with private rights; regulate the admeasurment and weight by which all articles for sale shall be disposed of; provide for the appointment of appraisers and measurers of builders' work and materials, and of wood, coal, grain, and lumber; restrain the disorderly meetings of slaves, free negroes, and mulattoes, and punish such slaves by whipping, not exceeding forty stripes, or by imprisonment, not exceeding six months, for one offence; and to punish such free negroes and mulattoes by penalties not exceeding twenty dollars for one offence, and in case of their inability, to confine them not exceeding six months; and they may cause all vagrants, disorderly or suspicious persons, eves-droppers, and night-walkers, gamblers, prostitutes, and all who lead an immoral course of life, to give security for their good behaviour, and to indemnify the city against any charge for their support, and if they do not give such security, to confine them to labor, not exceeding one year at a time; to bind out poor orphans, and the children of vagrants, and paupers; prescribe the terms upon which free negroes and mulattoes may reside in the city; authorize, with the approbation of the President of the United States, the drawing of lotteries for making those improvements in the city which the ordinary revenue will not accomplish, for ten years, provided the amount so raised shall not exceed 10,000 dollars in any one year, clear of expenses; to regulate burying grounds; provide for the registering of births, deaths, and marriages; to punish colored servants or slaves, for a breach of their laws, unless the master of such servants or slaves shall pay the fine; and they may pass all laws which may be deemed necessary to carry into execution the powers vested by this act in said Corporation.

Sec. 9. makes it the duty of the Marshal of the District of Columbia, to keep within the jail for the County of Washington, all persons committed thereto, by authority of this act; and where suits shall be had before a justice of the peace, for the recovery of fines, by the Corporation, executions shall be issued, as in other cases of small debts.

Sec. 10. authorizes the sale by auction of real property, on which two years, taxes are due, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay such taxes, and costs; public notice thereof to be given in some newspaper of the city, once a week for six months, when the property is assessed to persons residing out of the United States; for three months when they reside in the United States but out of the District; and for six weeks, when they reside in the District; which advertisement shall describe the property, give the person's name to whom assessed, and the amount of taxes due thereon. The purchaser to pay at the time of sale, the amount of taxes and expenses, and the residue within two years and ten days from the sale, which shall be placed in the city treasury and remain subject to the order of the original proprietor; the purchaser to receive from the Mayor a title in fee simple. It is provided that the proprietor may redeem his property so sold, within two years, by paying or tendering to the purchaser, or depositing with the Mayor, and notifying the purchaser thereof, the amount paid by the purchaser, and ten per cent. per annum thereon. If the purchaser fails to pay the residue within the two years and ten days, he shall pay an interest thereon of ten per cent. per annum, until he does pay it, and receive a conveyance from the Corporation; the interest, like the residue, to be subject to the order of the original proprietor. No sale is to be made of improved property, whereon there is personal property sufficient to pay the taxes; minors, mortgagees, and others, having equitable interests in real property sold for taxes, are allowed one year after such minor's coming of age, or the others, have obtained a decree for its sale, to redeem the property so sold, which they may do by paying to the purchaser a sum equal to the whole amount he has paid on said property up to the period of redemption, with ten per cent. interest, and also the full value of the improvements thereon made by the purchaser. Where the estate of the tenant in default, as for years, or life, is sufficient to pay the taxes, such estate only shall be sold.

Sec. 11. makes it lawful for the collector to postpone the sale, for want of bidders, he giving public notice thereof, and the sale made at such postponed time is to be as valid as if made on the day first stated.

Sec. 12. authorizes the collector to proceed by distress and sale of goods and chattels, in the collection of all legal taxes, after giving ten days' notice in a newspaper of the city. The laws of Maryland relative to the right of replevying, are made applicable to cases of personal property taken by distress for taxes imposed by the Corporation.

Sec. 13. declares that the Levy Court of Washington County shall not have the power of taxing property in the city. The Corporation are exempted from contributing towards defraying the expenses of said court, except for one half incurred on account of the orphan's court, the office of coroner, the county jail, and the opening and repairing of roads east of Rock Creek, leading to the city; but the Corporation are to have the sole control of the bridge over Rock Creek, at the termination of K street north, which they must repair and rebuild when necessary.

Sec. 14. requires the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and the Register of Wills, for the County of Washington, respectively, to furnish the City Register with semi-annual lists of the transfers of real property in the city; for which service the said Clerk and Register of Wills are to be paid not exceeding six cents for each transfer.

Sec. 15. authorizes and requires the Commissioner of the Public Buildings to reimburse to the Corporation a just proportion of the expenses incurred in opening, paving, or improving, any of the streets which pass by the United States' squares or reservations; which proportion shall be determined by a comparison of the length of their front with the whole extent of their two sides; and the commissioner shall cause the foot ways to be paved in front of any square, reservation or lot, belonging to the U. States, whenever the Corporation shall direct the like improvements to be made on the opposite or adjoining squares or lots. The expenses to be defrayed by the commissioner out of moneys arising from the sale of United States lots in the city.

Sec. 16. authorizes the Boards of Aldermen and Common Council, from time to time, to divide the city into as many wards as they think proper, provided that each ward shall comprise, as near as may be, an equal number of inhabitants.* Expenses incurred in improving the streets which form the boundaries of the wards, to be defrayed out of the taxes raised in the wards which adjoin them, in equal proportions. The corporation is required, before the first Monday in June, 1820, to apportion amongst the wards hereby established, such portions of the city debt, as have heretofore been chargeable to the old wards. The Board of Aldermen are directed, on the second Monday in June, 1820, as soon as organized, to divide themselves into two classes, as follow: Those members now in office, and, by virtue of their election in June, 1819, are entitled to take their seats in the new Board as members from the wards in which they shall reside, shall be placed in the first class; those members who shall be elected from the same wards, in June next, shall be placed in the second class; and the other members shall be placed in their respective classes by lot; the seats of the first class to be vacated at the end of the first year, and the seats of the second class at the end of the second year; so that one member shall be elected in each ward every year thereafter. Aldermen are to be, by virtue of their office, justices of the peace for the county of Washington, unless holding commissions in the army or navy of the U. States.

* This section divides the city into six wards; but the necessity of defining their limits here is superseded, as the Corporation, on the 24th May, 1820, by virtue of the power vested in them to that effect, have made a new division. See p. 110

Sec. 17. declares that this act shall continue in force for twenty years, and until Congress shall determine otherwise.

LITERARY AND BENEVOLENT INSTITUTIONS.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,

Is situated on an eminence, one mile and a half north of the President's house, adjoining the northern boundary of the city of Washington, commanding a prospect of the cities of Washington, Georgetown, and Alexandria, and the Potomac river, for about fifteen miles, to Fort Washington and Mount Vernon.

The premises, containing forty-seven acres, were purchased in November, 1819. The College edifice was begun in March, 1820, and finished in the fall of 1821. It is 117 feet long, 47 feet deep, and five stories high, including the basement and attick. Two handsome brick houses, for Professors, besides convenient out-buildings and appurtenances, are also completed.

The institution was incorporated by an act of Congress of February 9, 1821. No religious test is required of candidates for any situation in the College, either as trustee, instructor, or student; but all persons, conforming to the principles of morality, are entitled to equal privileges and benefits.

There are three Departments in the College, Classical, Theological, and Medical; the last of which is not yet brought into operation. A Law Department is also contemplated.

The Theological Department commenced its operations in September, 1821, and the Classical Department in January, 1822. The course of instruction in the Classical Department is the same as that of the most respectable Colleges in the United States, accommodated alike as a foundation to all learned professions.

The present number of students in the College is fifty-four. There are two vacations in each year: the first, from the second Wednesday in July to the second Wednesday in September; the other, from the third Wednesday in December to the second Wednesday in January. Annual commencement, third Wednesday in December.

THE GEORGETOWN COLLEGE

Is situated on an eminence, eighty feet above the bed of the Potomac river, and commands a view of Georgetown, Washington, the Potomac, and the adjacent parts of the District of Columbia. The College edifice is of brick, 3 stories high, 153 feet long, and 33 in breadth.

This institution was commenced in the year 1790, by subscription, under the direction of the incorporated Catholic Clergy of the state of Maryland, of whom Archbishop Carroll was the head. In 1815, the College was raised by Congress to the rank of an University, so that the course of studies is calculated to fit the scholars for the usual academic honors. The course of ordinary studies is completed in six years, after which, if the student has made sufficient proficiency, he may receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts. If he remain longer, and study the higher branches of mathematics and philosophy, with success, he may take the degree of Master of Arts. As the members of the College profess the Catholic religion, the exercises of religious worship are Catholic; but members of every other religious denomination are received, of whom it is only required that they respectfully assist at the public duties of religion with their companions. No student is admitted who has not a good moral character.

The academic year commences on the 15th of September, and ends on the 31st of July. There are two examinations in the year, and two days of public academic exercises: the minor one in March, and the commencement on the 27th of July.

THE FEMALE CENT SOCIETY, OF WASHINGTON,

Auxiliary to the society for the education of pious young men for the ministry, in the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the District of Columbia, was instituted in the year 1820. Although the regular contribution from each member is but fifty-two cents a year, yet the amount thus raised, together with donations, which in two years has been paid into the treasury of the parent institution, is about one hundred dollars.

DIRECTORS.

Rev. Wm. Matthews, Pres't. George E. Ironside,
John Sessford, Treasurer. Edward Cutbush,
William W. Seaton, George Sweeny.
Samuel H. Smith, John A. Adams, Librarian.

The Washington Library was established by the subscription of two hundred persons, at 12 dollars each, and incorporated by Congress in 1814. It now consists of about 2000 well selected volumes, among which is a splendid edition of Greek and Roman Iconography, in four volumes, folio, presented to the institution by M. Hyde de Neuville, in the name of the King of France. The affairs of the Library are managed by seven Directors, chosen by the shareholders on the first Monday of April, annually. The Directors choose a President, Treasurer, and Librarian. The latter attends every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 3 to 6 o'clock, and from 3 to sunset, when the sun sets later than 6. The price of a share is 12 dollars, and they are transferrable, provided all arrearages are paid. Persons who are not permanent residents of the city, may have the use of the Library, at the rate of five dollars a year, on depositing double the value of the books taken out, subject in all other respects, to the same regulations as shareholders.

LATITUDE AND LONGITUDE OF THE CAPITOL.

In pursuance of a resolution of Congress, approved on the third of March, 1821, authorizing the Longitude of the Capitol from some known meridian in Europe, to be determined, Mr. WILLIAM LAMBERT, of Virginia, was appointed by the President of the United States to execute that duty. Mr. Lambert accomplished the object of his appointment in the summer and autumn of the same year. A Report, consisting of 81 pages, in which Mr. L. details the various methods used by him to obtain a correct result, was laid before the first session of the seventeenth Congress. The following are the results:

STATE OF ILLINOIS.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,
Vandalia, October 13, 1822.

To those who have Taxes to pay in this State:

I think it my duty to recommend Col. JOSEPH WATSON, of Washington City, as an agent well qualified, and justly entitled to patronage and confidence. He has evinced himself peculiarly qualified for the satisfactory discharge of the duties of his office. I make this official recommendation from a sincere solicitude to facilitate the payment of taxes by non-residents with safety and expedition.

R. K. M'LAUGHLIN,
Treasurer of Illinois.

MILITARY AND GENERAL AGENCY, 1815
Washington City, December, 1822.

ON withdrawing from the Army, at the close of the War, the undersigned established this Agency, under the written sanction of the officers of government charged with the settlement of the accounts and claims which the war had originated. After aiding in the settlement of these, to an amount exceeding one million of dollars, and giving general satisfaction to his employers, he has been induced, within the last three years, to extend the objects of the Agency to the payment of taxes, recording of deeds, and collecting debts, in the States of Ohio, Illinois, Missouri, Mississippi, Kentucky, in the Territories of Arkansas, Florida, and other States of the Union; to all business connected with agency, lands, and city lots, including purchasing, selling, leasing, and exchanging real estate; to the preparing petitions to Congress, conveyances, leases, agreements, bonds, and other legal writings, with which his practice has made him familiar; and to the translation of the French, Spanish, and other foreign languages.

To persons having conveyances to be recorded at a distance, this agency affords the security of a regular transcript record, from which proof of the existence of the title, with all important details, can readily be obtained.

The undersigned will act as agent to administrators, in the settlement of estates, for a fixed commission.
